ABOUT CARRIE NEWCOMER

Carrie Newcomer is a singer-songwriter from the heartland with a global and interfaith reach. As a voice for progressive spirituality she weaves descriptions of the human condition and transcendent hope in such a way that The Boston Globe called her a “prairie mystic” and The Rolling Stone said “she asks all the right questions.” And now Carrie is bringing her warm voice, exquisite melodies, and irreverent yet spiritual view of the world to Columbia, Missouri.

ABOUT THE CONCERT

This concert is the capstone of a weekend retreat for veterans provided by All the Way Home, a regional initiative to address the invisible wounds of war (vetsallthewayhome.org). It is open to the entire public.

You are invited to an enchanted evening with Carrie Newcomer as she sings many of the beloved songs that originally put her on the music map as well as creations from her latest albums A Permeable Life and The Slender Thread.
